Thembekile Mayayise is a research associate and Ph.D. (Information Systems) student at the University of South Africa. Past affiliations were with the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg in 2003 where she obtained a Higher Diploma in Computer Auditing, a Bachelor of Commerce degree in Information Systems with the University of Kwa-Zulu Natal, South Africa in 2000.She received a Bachelor of Commerce (Honors) degree in Informatics in 2005 and a Master's degree in Information Technology (MIT) in April 2009 from the University of Pretoria, South Africa. Her research interests lie in internet security & privacy, information security, E-commerce, computer audit and web assurance